

AN CHÚIRT UACHTARACH [THE SUPREME COURT]

For Friday, 26th March, 2021

COVID-19

The attention of parties and practitioners is drawn to a new practice direction SC 21 (<https://beta.courts.ie/content/conduct-proceedings-supreme-court-covid-19>) which is intended to apply during the continuance of any special measures or guidance adopted by the government to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic.

The new Practice Direction facilitates the continuing work of the Court and, in particular, provides guidance concerning the conduct of remote case management and appeal hearings. Practitioners should familiarise themselves with the detail of its provisions and with other guidance when issued under its provisions. The Court is considering both how to identify and deal with urgent cases so as to avoid physical hearings if possible. If it is considered that an adjourned case is urgent the Court will consider granting it priority. Parties who contend such urgency should set out their reasons in writing by email addressed to the Registrar at supremecourt@courts.ie.

The default position until further notice is that all written judgments of the Court will be delivered by means of a copy of the judgment being sent electronically to the parties and being posted as soon as possible on the Courts Service website. The date and time of delivery to the parties will be notified in the Legal Diary.

The Supreme Court fully acknowledges that the family, friends and colleagues of newly appointed judges will wish to participate in the ceremony whereby the judge concerned makes the declaration required of them by the Constitution before entering onto their duties. However, in the current circumstances, the space available in the Supreme courtroom is very limited. The Chief Justice has invited a small number of persons to attend because of their very close connection to Ms. Justice Stack. Those persons will use up all of the spaces which have been assessed as being capable of being safely accommodated. For those reasons the Supreme Court would ask that other persons not attend the declaration ceremony. In that context it might be noted that it is the intention of the Chief Justice, when the current level of restriction has been relaxed, to organise ceremonies of welcome in respect of all of those judges who made their declaration under these limitations.

Ms. Siobhan Stack SC will make the Declaration required by the Constitution of a judge of the High Court, in the presence of the Chief Justice, in the Supreme Court at 10.30 o'clock on Friday, 26th March.

AN CHÚIRT ACOMHAIRC THE COURT OF APPEAL

NOTICES – COVID-19 (updated 21st December 2020)

The Court of Appeal Office in Áras Ui Dhalaigh is conducting business by appointment only for urgent business.

An appointment may be arranged via email to courtofappealcivil@courts.ie. Documents will also be accepted by post or via DX (No. 262001).

REMOTE APPEAL HEARINGS

The attention of practitioners and all parties to any appeal is drawn to the provisions of the following Notices issued by the President of the Court of Appeal the text of which is published on the COVID-19 homepage:

- The Information Notice on the conduct of remote hearings issued on the 14th May 2020
- The E-Filing Information Notice in respect of appeal papers issued on the 20th April 2020

APPEALS AWAITING THE ALLOCATION OF A HEARING DATE

The Court is currently carrying out its review of the appeals previously listed for hearing which were deferred due to COVID-19 or which were not allocated hearing dates at some of the earlier remote directions lists. Hearing dates during 2021 have now been allocated to many appeals which have not previously been fixed for hearing during this term and the dates are published in the Legal Diary and the parties will be notified. The mode of hearing will be confirmed in due course having regard to the HSE guidelines then in place. Pending an email notification from the office any party to an appeal who is concerned that the appeal does not appear in the Legal Diary may contact the office via email to courtofappealcivil@courts.ie with "List enquiry" in the subject-box.

APPEALS FOR HEARING IN MICHAELMAS TERM 2020

Due to the current HSE guidelines during the ongoing pandemic all appeals for hearing this term will be by way of remote hearing except in the case of appeals where the Court, on application at the Friday Callover, directs that the appeal be dealt with by way of a "hybrid" hearing.

A "hybrid" hearing is where one of the parties to the appeal attends in the precincts of the courtroom to make legal submissions while the Court and the other parties to the appeal participate remotely. Any enquiries in relation to remote and "hybrid" hearings is available from the office via email to courtofappealcivil@courts.ie.

Parties should lodge the agreed books of appeal (including the books of authorities) in hardcopy (x 3) and also in soft copy via the ShareFile platform.

Practice Direction CA06 which governs the papers to be lodged for appeal hearings is to be revised to provide inter alia for all necessary documentation (including books of authorities) to be lodged in good time in advance of the appeal hearing. Pending such revision parties are asked to lodge agreed books of authorities with the books of appeal or no later than one week before the date fixed for the hearing of the appeal.

The remote hearings will be listed in Courts 1 and 2, Court of Appeal Building and the Virtual Meeting Room (VMR) details will be emailed to the parties

24 hours in advance of the hearing. The respective capacity of each courtroom is published in the Legal Diary in the event of any interested party including members of the media attending in one of the courtrooms to observe the remote hearing and each courtroom is equipped with audio-visual facilities. Social distancing is to be strictly observed at all times and the attention of all those attending is drawn to the Statement of the Chief Justice and the Presidents of each Court dated the 5th October 2020 on the wearing of face coverings the text of which is published on this website and is also posted on the respective courtroom doors.

DIRECTIONS LIST AND MOTION LISTS

With effect from Friday the 9th October 2020 the weekly directions and motions lists before Ms. Justice Costello resumed by way of remote hearing. In accordance with provisions of Order 86A Rule 16(1) the directions book is to be lodged in the office by close of business on the preceding Friday. In accordance with the provisions of Order 86 Rule 12(5) (dealing with interlocutory applications) the motion book is to be lodged in the office by close of business on the preceding Tuesday.

FRIDAY CALLOVER OF APPEALS LISTED FOR HEARING - CHANGE IN PRACTICE

The weekly advance Callover of appeals listed for hearing resumed on Friday the 16th October 2020 via remote hearing before Ms. Justice Costello. The Callover lists for each respective Friday list are published in advance in the Legal Diary. The Legal Diary list is updated on a daily basis. It is the responsibility of the parties in listed appeals to check the Legal Diary for the date of the relevant Callover (usually scheduled for three weeks in advance of the appeal hearing date).

Parties will be aware that the purpose of the Callover is to confirm that the submissions and books of appeals (including books of authorities) have been lodged and that there has been compliance with any other directions previously given by the Court. An additional element of the Callover is that the Court will confirm the mode of hearing of the appeal, i.e. whether it is to be by way of remote or "hybrid" hearing. It is vital therefore that there be an attendance at the Callover by all parties to an appeal and

VIRTUAL MEETING ROOM (VMR) DETAILS FOR FRIDAY LISTS - IMPORTANT

Parties are asked to note that the Virtual Meeting Room (VMR) details for the Callover / Directions / Motion list on each Friday will be furnished to them directly by e-mail of the Court of Appeal Office. Parties are advised, in this regard, to ensure that e-mail contact details furnished to that Office remain valid / are fully up-to-date

CIVIL APPEALS FOR HEARING IN THE CRIMINAL COURTS OF JUSTICE

Civil appeals with a custody element ie Article 40 habeas corpus, extradition, bail and judicial review arising out of criminal proceedings are now dealt with by the criminal office which is situated on the 4th Floor of the Criminal Courts of Justice Building, Parkgate Street, Dublin 8. The civil office will continue to issue the Notice of Appeal and identify whether the appeal comes within the category of appeal to be heard in the Criminal Courts of Justice and allocate the next available case-management list in the Criminal Courts of Justice for a directions hearing. The file will then be transferred to the criminal office and all subsequent documents in the appeal process are to be lodged in the criminal office which will have responsibility for the management and listing of the appeal. Any enquiries in relation to such appeals should be made to the criminal office by email to courtofappealcriminal@courts.ie or by telephone on (01) 7988004.

AN CHUIRT ACHOMHAIRC (CHOIRIÚIL) THE COURT OF APPEAL (CRIMINAL)

COVID-19 (updated 27th October 2020)

The court office in the Criminal Courts of Justice is open for business but by appointment only and all personal callers are dealt with in the Bail Office on the ground floor. Please therefore send an email to courtsofappealcriminal@courts.ie for an appointment to lodge or collect documents and arrangements will be made for a member of staff to attend at the Bail Office situated on the ground floor of the criminal building. There is a Dropbox facility in a secure area of the Bail Office which is checked twice daily. Documents may also be lodged via email to the above address or by post or by DX (268001). The office is also contactable by telephone on (01) 7988004.

REMOTE APPEAL HEARINGS

The attention of practitioners is drawn to the provisions of the following Notices issued by the President of the Court of Appeal the text of which is published on the COVID-19 homepage:

The Information Notice on the conduct of remote hearings issued on the 14th May 2020

The Information Notice on E-filing of appeal papers issued on the 20th April 2020 – this Notice is in the process of being re-issued to take account of the ShareFile system which will be the required platform for the e-filing of appeal papers. Further information on this system is available from the court office.

Any updates in relation to the listing of appeals will be published in the Legal Diary and practitioners are advised to monitor the Diary for any such updates. Any enquiry in relation to the listing of a criminal appeal (or a civil appeal for hearing in the Criminal Courts of Justice) may be made to the Registrar by email to courtofappealcriminal@courts.ie.

CIVIL APPEALS FOR HEARING IN THE CRIMINAL COURTS OF JUSTICE

Civil appeals with a criminal/custody element ie Article 40 habeas corpus, extradition, bail and judicial review arising out of criminal proceedings are now dealt with by the criminal office. The civil office will continue to issue the Notice of Appeal and identify whether the appeal comes within the category of appeal to be heard in the Criminal Courts of Justice and allocate the next available case-management list for a directions hearing. The file will then be transferred to the criminal office and all subsequent documents in the appeal process are to be lodged in the criminal office which will have responsibility for the management and listing of the appeal. For the avoidance of doubt such documents include Respondent's Notices, directions books, motions (and motion books), submissions and books of appeal. Any enquiries in relation to such appeals should be made to the criminal office by email to courtofappealcriminal@courts.ie. Submissions should also be emailed in word format to that address. This will also be the mailing address for the transmission of books of appeal in soft copy in accordance with the provisions of the Efiling Notice dated the 20th April 2020 (currently under review as above). The provisions of Practice Direction CA06 also apply.

Case-Management List

There will be a remote case-management list on Friday the 26th March at 10 o'clock before the President and while it is intended to have a list every Friday in term practitioners are advised to check the Legal Diary on an ongoing basis to confirm that there is a list scheduled on a Friday where a matter is required to be listed for case-management. The court office will also be able to confirm the dates of such lists.

Sentence appeals and undue leniency applications

See Practice Direction (CA02) for requirements as to materials (reports, testimonials etc) for the use of the court in sentence appeals and undue leniency applications. Practitioners are urged to ensure that any such materials are furnished to the court office in good time in advance of the remote hearing date to facilitate the transmission of the materials to the Court. Practitioners are also reminded that there is no necessity to apply to Court for the preparation of a Governor's Report or an Educational Report so that such Reports are available in the event of the Court finding an error in principle in the sentence imposed by the court of trial. On receipt of an email to the court office (in good time in advance of the hearing date) specifying the nature of the Report required, the date of the appeal hearing and the prison where the appellant or respondent (as the case may be) is incarcerated the office will request the required Report from the relevant prison.

Chief Prosecution Solicitor – service of documents and notification of any intended application

Practitioners are reminded of the requirement to serve on the Chief Prosecution Solicitor for the Director of Public Prosecutions written submissions lodged in or transmitted via email to the court office. Except for the documents referred to in Order 86C Rule 7 (1) (a notice of appeal or a notice of application pursuant to section 2 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1993) and in Order 86C Rule 15(1) (a notice of abandonment) notice of which the Registrar is required to give to various parties including the Chief Prosecution Solicitor all other documents lodged in or transmitted via email to the court office must be served on the Chief Prosecution Solicitor. Notice of any intended application to the Court must be given to the Chief Prosecution Solicitor as well as to the court office.
